HOW YOUR TOTAL LIGHTING DOLLAR IS SPENT

Everyone is concerned with saving money and improving profits. However, few people are taking advantage of the easiest way to save: ENERGY-EFFICIENT LIGHTING.

This graph clearly shows that the cost of powering a light bulb far outweighs the labor and bulb costs. PQL offers a full range of energy-efficient bulbs designed to be high quality replacements which consume up to 75% less energy and are designed to last longer. PQL bulb upgrades are a smart and reliable choice.

COST OF THE LAMP

Usually this cost averages 10% or less of the total lighting dollar.

MAINTENANCE COST

Rapidly rising labor costs make this factor frequently exceed 20% of the lighting dollar.

COST OF ELECTRICAL ENERGY

Under average conditions this cost represents the largest portion of the lighting dollar. As an example, when a consumer pays 15¢ per Kilowatt Hour and burns lamps 12 hours a day for 300 days during the year, the cost of the electricity for a 100 watt lamp would be $54.00.

LIGHT OUTPUT

The important factor to consider is maintained lumen output throughout lamp life.

LAMP LIFE

Since lamps can be obtained in a wide range of life rating, the correct life to use is dependent upon such factors as light output, accessibility and maintenance costs.

INTANGIBLE COSTS

The vital problems of safety, morale and the loss of production, which cannot be accurately calculated, are frequently the most important cost factors.
